State Certified Residential Real Estate Appraiser

2,500 hours of experience over a period of not less than 24 months, 75% (1,875 hours) of which must be from appraisals of residential properties listed on the Appraisal Experience Report (Attachment C). Residential experience must contain experience in residential single-family, residential multi-family, vacant lot or farm. At least 80% (1,500 hours) of the residential experience must be in the single-family category. The balance of the experience must be from one or more of the three remaining residential categories (multi-family, vacant lot or farm).

State Certified General Real Estate Appraiser

3,000 hours of experience over a period of not less than 30 months, 75% (2,250 hours) of which must be from appraisals of general properties listed on the Appraisal Experience Report (Attachment C). General experience must contain experience in multi-family, commercial/industrial, or other (land/manufacturing/institutional). 60% (1,350 hours) of the general experience must be in one of the above categories. 20% (450 hours) of the general experience must be in each of the two remaining categories.

Note: Experience must be obtained within the 5 year period prior to submission of your application. To assure consistency and fairness in evaluating appraisal experience, the Department of State will use an “hourly system” that will serve as a guideline. The hourly system takes into consideration the number and type of appraisals performed, hours worked (including travel).

Do I have to provide experience documentation such as copies of actual appraisal reports, supporting documentation or other data used to develop the appraisals (i.e., notes, MLS reports, etc.) at the time of application?

No. You will only need to complete the “appraisal experience report” and the “appraiser experience log” at the time of application. However, you should have all of this type of documentation in your possession. You may be asked, following initial licensure/certification, to verify any or all of the experience you have claimed.

What is considered acceptable experience?

1. Standard Appraisals:

If you performed at least 75% of the work associated with an appraisal (including preparation of the appraisal report), you will receive full credit for that appraisal even if your work was reviewed by a supervising appraiser who signed the appraisal report. You must complete Attachments C and D.

2. Review Appraisals:

If you performed a “review appraisal,” whether defined as a “field review” or a “documentary review” or a combination of both, you will receive 25% of the hours normally assigned for that appraisal. You must complete Attachments C and D.

Note: Review Appraisals may be used for qualifying experience credit only up to a maximum of 25% of the required hours.

Class	Required Experience	Maximum Credit Allowed for Appraisal Review
State Licensed Residential Real Estate Appraiser	2,000 hours	500 hours
State Certified Residential Real Estate Appraiser	2,500 hours	625 hours
State Certified General Real Estate Appraiser	3,000 hours	750 hours

3. Mass Appraisal Experience:

In accordance with regulation 1102.7, applicants for licensure/certification may receive credit for mass appraisal experience. Please refer to and complete Attachment E of the application.

What if I have a combination of traditional and mass appraisal experience?

If you have combined experience, please refer to and complete Attachments C, D, E, & F.

What is considered unacceptable experience?

1. Market value estimates as a real estate licensee in connection with the listing and/or sale of real estate; i.e., “comparative market analysis.”

2. Business appraisals. (Credit will be given for appraisals of individual parcels of commercial real estate.)
3. Personal property appraisals.
4. Feasibility or market analysis, except to the extent that the “market value” of a proposed real estate project is being estimated.

What if I don’t meet the necessary experience qualifications?

If you do not meet the experience qualifications, you may apply for an Appraiser Assistant license.

How do I qualify as a State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser Assistant?

State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser Assistant applicants must:

- file an appraiser application with the $275 fee;
- meet the minimum education requirements of a State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser;
- be supervised in the conduct of their services by a New York State licensed or certified appraiser who must co-sign any appraisal report involving a federally related transaction over the de minimus level;
- utilize the same Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice as a state licensed or certified appraiser.

Upon satisfaction of the application requirements of the Department of State, the Department will issue a renewable 2 year State Licensed Real Estate Appraiser Assistant license.

Should an appraiser assistant acquire experience for licensed or certified appraiser, his or her application must comply with whatever examination and education requirements exist for that category at that time.

Once I have completed the experience requirements, how do I convert from an appraiser assistant to the licensed or certified classification?

If you are converting to the licensed or certified classifications, you must submit a “new” completed appraiser application, a $300 application fee, a copy of your appraiser assistant license and have passed the appropriate appraiser examination within the preceding 24 months.

Is there Reciprocity with other states?

Yes, an applicant may be certified/licensed in New York State without examination and further qualification if the applicant is certified/licensed in another state or territory:

- whose program has been officially endorsed by the Federal Appraisal Subcommittee.
- whose examination has been approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of the Appraisal Foundation.
- who has entered into a reciprocal agreement with New York State for the recognition of each others’ licensing/certification program.

Reciprocity applicants must submit:

- a certification from the state agency in which they are currently licensed/certified, indicating current status as an appraiser in good standing;
- an “Irrevocable Consent” form, if nonresident;

a completed appraiser application (p.1) and Attachment G with $300 ($250 application and $50 federal registration fee).

The term for a reciprocal license/certification is 2 years.

How do I apply for a temporary license/certification?

On occasion, a nonresident appraiser may wish to conduct business of a temporary nature in New York State. The applicant may be issued a temporary license/certificate to perform appraisals in New York State if the applicant is certified/licensed in another state or territory:

- whose program has been officially endorsed by the Federal Appraisal Subcommittee.
- whose examination has been approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of the Appraisal Foundation.

Nonresident temporary applicants must submit:

- a certification from the state agency in which they are currently licensed/certified, indicating current status as an appraiser in good standing;
- an “Irrevocable Consent” form;
- a completed appraiser application (p.1) and Attachment G with $125 application fee.

NOTE: APPLICANTS MAY NOT MAINTAIN AN OFFICE WHICH PROVIDES APPRAISAL SERVICES TO CLIENTS IN NEW YORK STATE.

The term is for 1 year and cannot be renewed.

Are there any continuing education requirements to renew my license/certification?

Yes, all real estate appraisers must complete 28 hours of approved continuing education within their two-year license term in order to renew their license/certification. Included within this 28 hour requirement, an appraiser must successfully complete the 7 hour National USPAP update course. This course may be applied toward the 28 hour continuing education requirement.

Please note that in accordance with the Appraisal Foundation requirements, appraisers must continue to maintain the 14 hour yearly continuing education requirement even if they do not renew their license. For example, an appraiser whose license expires 11/07/07 and does not renew until 11/07/08, will be required to complete the 28 hours for the original term plus an additional 14 hours for the year that the license lapsed.

It is important to note that if the appraiser fails to renew within two years of the expiration date, the appraiser will be required to resubmit a new application and meet all of the current qualifications.

Do I need to complete the Child Support Statement section of the application?

Yes. A Child Support Statement is mandatory in New York State (General Obligations Law). The law requires you to complete this section — regardless of whether or not you have children or any support obligation.

Any person who is four months or more in arrears in child support may be subject to having his or her business, professional and driver’s licenses suspended. The intentional submission of a false written statement for the purpose of frustrating or defeating the lawful enforcement of support obligations is punishable under §175.35 of the Penal Law. It is a class E felony to offer a false instrument for filing with a state or local government with the intent to defraud.

PRIVACY NOTIFICATION

Do I need to provide my Social Security and Federal ID numbers on the application?

Yes. The Department of State is required to collect the federal Social Security and Employer Identification numbers of all licensees. The authority to request and maintain such personal information is found in §5 of the Tax Law and §3-503 of the General Obligations Law. Disclosure by you is mandatory. The information is collected to enable the Department of Taxation and Finance to identify individuals, businesses and others who have been delinquent in filing tax returns or may have underestimated their tax liabilities and to generally identify persons affected by the taxes administered by the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance. It will be used for tax administration purposes and any other purpose authorized by the Tax Law and may also be used by child support enforcement agencies or their authorized representatives of this or other states established pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, to establish, modify or enforce an order of support, but will not be available to the public. A written explanation is required where no number is provided.
